Welcome to Triangle!

As we prepare diligently for the 2021 season we must accept the presence of the global Coronavirus pandemic and the potential it presents to shape our training, competition, and travel opportunities this season. We recognize that families are faced with having to assess, and oftentimes balance, risk vs. reward-type scenarios when it comes to their children's education, social relationships and participation in extra-curricular activities. As the club season approaches it is apparent to us at Triangle that this challenge has created a heightened level of anxiety and uncertainty for many parents and families.

In these unprecedented times Triangle has devoted incredible time, energy, and investment to earn the volleyball community's trust. Since the pandemic struck in early March we have taken a cautious, creative, serious, compassionate and detailed approach to developing a return-to-sport plan, facility protocols and operational enhancements that minimize risk of COVID-19 transmission in our facility. We commit to every family choosing Triangle as their club for 2021 that we will continue our steadfast determination to that effort. Please be sure to read our COVID-19 statement on the back of this program guide to learn more.

Truly, Sherry L. Fadool, Executive Director, Triangle Volleyball Club

NOTES:

- Pre-season practices/training are free of charge and not included in the team dues presented in this guide.
- An alternating time (early/late) practice schedule option for national teams may be employed during WCPSS high school season, if needed.
- Pre-practice training for specific positions is part of the practice commitment for athletes.
- Initially we are scheduling practices to allow for a 30-minute buffer to allow for athlete screening and check-in. Long term we seek to reduce the buffer to 15 minutes, allowing practice times to expand further.
- Sunday practices will primarily occur during non-travel parts of the season. Should club season overlap with an athlete's high school program, Sunday practices will ensure them regular access to team training.
- Due to COVID-19, PACT is not being incorporated as part of the regular weekday practice time. Options for student-athlete strength and conditioning in our dedicated PACT room will be explored once allowable.
- While we are confident in the above information, Triangle reserves the right to make adjustments as necessary.

TRAVEL AND TRAVEL SERVICES

Without question we must look differently at travel in 2021 due to the sustained impact of COVID-19. Despite the differences warranted by the pandemic, Triangle athletes and families can count on a high-quality, well-organized travel experience. Triangle has tremendous experience and strategic partnerships that allow Triangle’s professional travel staff to consistently create the best environment to support team success on the road.

2021 TRAVEL PLAN - To allow for safe and responsible travel for Triangle teams while the pandemic threat remains, we will be modifying our traditional travel practices. Below are some helpful definitions:

- TEAM Travel is defined as when a team travels under the direct supervision of coaching staff and where the Club provides for and arranges team-based transportation, lodging, and all meals.
- FAMILY Travel is defined as when an athlete travels primarily with their parent or designated guardian and includes parent/athlete combined overnight lodging arrangements. Transportation and lodging costs are solely the responsibility of the individual family. Once team responsibilities are complete for the day the athlete will be under the direct supervision of their parent or designated guardian.
- FLEXIBLE Travel is defined as when the Club offers families a choice of either Team Travel or Family Travel.

For National teams 15 and older Triangle has priced travel under the TEAM Travel model and will seek lodging arrangements that provide athletes their own bed*. Additionally, we are also providing families an estimate for a FAMILY Travel option. Keep in mind both the costs listed are estimates and we fully reconcile all travel expenses at the end of the season. NOTE: *FAMILY Travel will be used for Triangle’s 14 & under junior girls and all boys’ teams

Chaperone Responsibilities – Triangle will continue to employ the services of a team chaperone but how that service is executed will change and will not involve team dining, meetings, or other group activities in the chaperone’s hotel room. Additionally, pre-packaged or ordered foods will be the preferred source of food for athletes and coaching staff.

TRAVEL COSTS

1. Transportation – TEAM travel estimates include the cost of team-based transportation while FAMILY travel does not. The schedule page shows which mode of transportation is included in the TEAM travel estimate. Should travel by motor coach be ill-advised due to COVID-19, driving with parents will be an alternative for drivable events and that cost expected for motor coach service will be credited in the travel reconciliation process.
2. Lodging – travel estimates reflect athletes rooming 2 per hotel room (1 per bed). When hotel arrangements allow for 3 per room (when room includes a sleeper sofa), that lodging density will be utilized to save families money.
3. For both TEAM and FAMILY travel, all meals and snacks are provided throughout the trip utilizing chaperone purchases, catering, and/or local restaurant service.
4. The TEAM travel estimates for each trip include the estimated costs of coach transportation and lodging, food-related expenses and any other anticipated trip costs (i.e. ground transportation if needed)

Please note the following:

- ▲ Obviously with the Coronavirus pandemic expected to continue all events are tentative. Whether an event is held/attended will rely on national, state, and local public health guidance and any associated travel restrictions. *Lone Star Classic is a backup event and Team Travel costs for this event are NOT included in the estimated travel costs. Additional events may be added as best suits the needs of each team.
- ▲ Teams attend only one (1) national championship event. Teams qualifying for USAV Jr. Nationals will attend that event in lieu of AAUs
- ▲ Team Travel will utilize the transportation mode indicated above. The cost of transportation is built into the travel estimate and is included along with lodging and food. Actual transportation mode utilized will consider current public health guidance.
- ▲ Family Travel relies on parents to transport, lodge and provide overnight supervision for their athlete. Team food is included in the Family travel estimate (along with coach travel, pay, and team incidentals)
- ▲ 🙌 It's important to note that most travel arrangements have already been secured meaning both flights and hotels. The ability to have arrangements in place will best assure families that event participation will occur AND costs can be contained.
- ▲ School Absences-we do our best to minimize the number of missed days from school for travel tournaments. The number missed depends on the athlete's school system's calendar and our ability to secure transportation outside of school hours. For planning purposes allow 1-2 days missed for each three-day event when a school holiday is not utilized.
- ▲ Spectator Considerations – it is probable that tournaments around the country will restrict spectator numbers in order to maintain social distancing and comply with local regulations on large gatherings. Parents should prepare themselves for spectator levels averaging 1 per student-athlete at such events.

– Team travel by motor coach - Team travel by airplane
All associated transportation expenses are included in TEAM travel costs
FAMILY travel has families provide transportation, lodging and overnight supervision for their athlete(s).

COVID-19 and the 2021 Season

Public health experts believe that the COVID-19 pandemic will be prevalent through the end of 2020 and into 2021. Until a vaccine is developed and widely distributed, protocols meant to reduce the likelihood of viral transmission will be in effect. These protocols have the possibility of affecting both the practice environment, and more dramatically, the competition and travel experiences of the traditional club volleyball season.

With that said, the near future of club volleyball remains uncertain due to the presence of COVID-19 in our state and the cities and states hosting competitions. At Triangle, we are committed to doing our very best to give the club season each of us desires with excellent training and competition at the core of the student-athlete experience. To that end we are planning, with an optimistic eye, a competitive season. Along with the training families have come to expect from Triangle, athletes can expect to engage in high level competition both inside and outside our gym.

As we seek normalcy in training and competition, we will prioritize protecting our athletes and coaching staff by employing appropriate controls, safety protocols, and instituting the guidance of our national, state and local public health officials. Triangle's Pandemic Response and Return-to-Sport Plan provides the framework for keeping our gym safe and protecting those in our community. This plan was created after thorough research and collaboration with nationally-recognized clubs like Michigan Elite, Wave, and VCNebraska and considers the vast public health guidance from the CDC and NC Department of Public Health.

There are many unknowns in the months ahead and while the future impact of COVID-19 is beyond our control, we can confidently assure our members and their families that they can trust Triangle to handle the upcoming season with integrity and with the utmost concern for their athlete's health and safety. Here are some relevant facts:

- Triangle is, without question, a nationally recognized leader when it comes to safety, health and the protection of athletes.
- In response to the COVID-19 pandemic we have adopted extensive sanitization procedures for our courts, volleyballs, equipment and other high-contact surfaces. These practices were reviewed by officials in the Office of Governor Cooper and have been in place since reopening in late May. When combined with gym and participant protocols Triangle is uniquely equipped to consistently provide the needed protection for our training space and ensure the safety and well-being of our athletes and staff.
- Scientists have established that Coronavirus is highly contagious and transmitted through shared air space. As such, public health officials including the CDC have emphasized the need for highly efficient and effective ventilation in indoor athletic spaces. The large open-span air space in Triangle's WCC facility is managed by eight large air handlers specifically designed for volleyball/athletic activities and engineered with humidity controls and a high-performance capacity. Our partners at Piedmont Service Group regularly monitor our HVAC equipment to ensure it is operating with maximum air turnover and fresh air intake. In doing so the risk of airborne disease transmission is minimized in our gym.
- As has been seen on campuses, K-12 schools and sports of all kinds, COVID-19 is a continuing risk. Proper controls and having the capability to effectively contact trace will minimize the impact should an athlete, coach or visitor infected with COVID-19 be in our gym. Triangle has personnel certified in Contact Tracing by Johns Hopkins University.
- As was the case when the pandemic first struck North Carolina, we promise to transparently communicate with our families regarding current public health guidance and if needed, how it will impact our gym operations and any competition events and/or travel.
- We have proven and will continue to be good financial stewards of our member's club fees and make every effort to provide a quality training and competition experience while at the same time mitigating the financial risk associated with engaging in youth sport activities while COVID-19 is still prevalent. It is worth mentioning that for the 2020 club season Triangle communicated with parents in a transparent fashion and handled refunds fairly for travel and club services not realized. Additionally, a comprehensive virtual training program served to keep athletes engaged on a regular practice schedule until the end of the season.

We know that families eagerly, yet anxiously, approach the upcoming club season. We also understand that a club's reputation and past practices regarding safety, fiscal management, and organizational integrity matter more than ever. Triangle's reputation in these areas is well known, proven, and a tangible value add. We invite you to talk to our past members or reach out to us if you have any questions or concerns that we can help to address so you can feel confident when making your club choice for 2021.

Most sincerely, Sherry Fadool, Executive Director
